

WELCOMING, CARING, RESPECTFUL, AND SAFE LEARNING ENVIRONMENT

POLICY

The Board of Trustees of Livingstone Range School Division No. 68 is committed to providing welcoming, caring, respectful, and safe learning environments that respect diversity, foster a sense of belonging, and promotes student and staff wellbeing. Each student and staff member has the right to learn and work in an inclusive environment free from bullying, discrimination, harassment and violence where equality of opportunity, dignity, and respect are promoted.

The Board of Trustees affirms the rights, as provided for in the Alberta Human Rights Act and the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms, of each staff member employed by the Board and each student enrolled in a school operated by the Board. As such, the Board will not tolerate discrimination against staff or students as provided for in the Alberta Human Rights Act or the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms.

DEFINITIONS

Welcoming, Caring, Respectful, and Safe Learning Environments

A welcoming, caring, respectful, and safe learning environment is one where students and staff are protected from bullying, discrimination, harassment, and violence within school facilities, on school grounds, on school buses, and during school sponsored/authorized co/extra-curricular activities. This applies whether or not the behaviour occurs within the school building, during the school day or by electronic means. All those involved with the division including trustees, staff (employees, volunteers, and contractors), students, parents, and visitors must share in the responsibility for eliminating bullying, discrimination, harassment, and violence. The Board prohibits bullying, harassment, discriminatory, and violent behaviours and expects allegations of such behaviours to be investigated in a timely and respectful manner.

Bullying

Bullying: The School Act defines bullying as “repeated and hostile or demeaning behaviour by an individual in the school community where the behaviour is intended to cause harm, fear or distress to one or more other individuals in the school community, including psychological harm or harm to an individual’s reputation”. Bullying behavior also includes behavior that targets a student because of the actual or perceived sexual orientation, gender identity or gender expression of parents or other family members. It also includes, “the distribution of an intimate image of another person knowing that the person depicted in the image did not consent to the distribution, or being reckless as to whether or not that person consented to the distribution. Bullying can take different forms including but not restricted to:

- Physical (pushing, hitting etc.);
- Verbal (name calling, threats etc.);
- Social (exclusion, rumours etc.);

- Cyber (using digital technology to harass, demean or threaten).

Discrimination

Negative differential treatment of a person or group on the basis of the prohibited grounds of discrimination set out in the Canadian and Alberta Human Rights Act or the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms; mainly, race, religious beliefs, colour, gender, gender identity, gender expression, physical disability, mental disability, age, ancestry, place of origin, marital status, source of income, family status or sexual orientation.

Harassment

Improper conduct (physical or verbal behavior) by any individual that is directed at and offensive to or humiliates another individual, and that the individual knew or ought reasonably to have known would cause offence or harm. It comprises objectionable act(s), comment(s) or display(s) that demean, belittle, or cause personal humiliation or embarrassment, and any act of intimidation or threat. It also includes discrimination within the meaning of the Canadian and Alberta Human Rights Acts or the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms. Harassment consists of repeated and persistent behaviours towards an individual to torment, undermine, frustrate or provoke a reaction from that person. It is the synergy and repetitive characteristic of the behaviours that constitute the conduct as harassment. However, one single incident can constitute harassment when it is demonstrated that it is severe and has a significant and lasting impact on the complainant. Harassment also includes:

Personal Harassment Disrespectful behavior that is unwelcomed and demeans or embarrasses a person and not based on one of the prohibited grounds within the Canadian and Alberta Human Rights Acts or the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms.

Sexual Harassment Offensive or humiliating behavior that is related to a person's sex, gender or sexual orientation, as well as behavior of a sexual nature that creates an intimidating, hostile, or "poisoned" work/learning environment or that could reasonably be thought to put sexual conditions on a person's educational advancement, job or employment opportunities.

Violence

Harassing behavior that has as an element of use, attempted use or threatened use of physical force or substantial risk that physical force may be used against a person or property of another.
